Carmel is as beautiful from the air as it is from the ground. The winding path of the Carmel River through the Valley, the irregular seacoast, Carmel Point and the artichoke fields take on a different appearance when seen from this aerial vantage point. Starting this month with the new regime of William L. Cranston, local architect, this photograph will be used as the cover of Carmel Rotary Club's bulletin "The Spokesman."

Bach Festival Gets Closer

Anticipation mounts as it gets closer to the time for Bach Festival rehearsals.

Following the opening program July 19, which features David Abel and Kenneth Goldsmith in the J. S. Bach Concerto for Two Violins, the Saturday program will contain a variety of soloists, and no music by Bach.

It will open with a concerto for trumpets and timpani by Altenburg, a first performance here. A concerto for harpsichord and piano by C.P.E. Bach will follow, played by Margaret Fabrizio and Ralph Linsley.

Joseph Schuster will play a cello concerto by Boccherini, and then Delcina Stevenson will sing a Mozart concert aria with piano obligato by Marilyn Neeley. A London symphony by Haydn, No. 97, will end the program, all of course, conducted by music director Sandor Salgo.

Sunday's concert will be entirely devoted to the great B Minor Mass by Bach, sung by the Chorale, the Bach Festival Chorus, and soloists, with the orchestra.

Bach's final effort, The Art of the Fugue will be done by the orchestra under the Salgo baton on Monday evening.

Tuesday evening, the Brandenburg Concerto No. 5 will feature David Shostac on flute, Kenneth Goldsmith on violin, and Margaret Fabrizio on harpsichord. This will be followed by the Hunting Cantata by Bach, sung by the entire chorus and chorale and soloists Mary-Esther Nicola, soprano, Dorothy Ledger, mezzo soprano, Melvin Brown, tenor, and John West, bass. Concert artist Marian Neeley will play the Mozart Concerto for Piano in B Flat to end the program.

High point in the week will be the traditional evening concert by candlelight held on Wednesday evening at the Carmel Mission Basilica. This year, the Baroque music of New Spain by Gabrieli will be featured for the first time. The entire chorale, a double antiphonal choir and Festival orchestra will be involved. A lecture to prepare listeners will be given in the afternoon by Dr. Raymond Kendall, president of the Performing Arts Council, Los Angeles.

Thursday afternoon at All Saints' Dr. Paul Hooreman, Swiss musicologist, will lecture on "Le Carnaval des Precieuses," French music of 1660, to be premiered at Sunset Theatre in the evening. Soloists for this concert will be Nancy Trethaway, soprano, Jacquelyn Layng, mezzo soprano, Brown, Douglas Lawrence, baritone, and West.

Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoon, the first three programs will be repeated.

For ticket information, write Bach Festival, Box 503, Carmel, with self-addressed envelope.

Swim Party Broken Up At Carmel Pool

Early yesterday morning a sheriff's deputy raided the Carmel High School pool where 13 boys and girls were swimming nude. Ages of these youngsters ranged from 13 to 20.

One boy apparently escaped, leaving his clothing, and his name and address in his pocket.

A paddy wagon was dispatched and all were taken to the sheriff sub station where four of the 13 were cited for indecent exposure and the 20-year-old Pacific Grove man for contributing to the delinquency of minors. All the others were released with curfew citations and parents notified.

The Pacific Grove man said that he and some others had been at a Del Monte Park party earlier that evening and decided they'd go swimming.

Six Peninsula Youths Tour The Congo

Sandy Albright of Pebble Beach and Tania Williams, both Carmel High School graduates, were among six Peninsula members of the "Up With People" cast of 150 to leave New York for the Republic of the Congo recently. They were invited by President Joseph Mobutu to give a special performance at the eighth anniversary of Independence Day.

Fireworks Illegal Except At Beach

Fourth of July celebrants are warned that fireworks are allowed only at the beach. For fire safety reasons they are not allowed in Carmel Valley or Carmel Highlands.

Fire Queen Contest Deadline Is Extended

The Carmel Volunteer Fire Department announced yesterday that the applications for this year's Fire Queen to reign over the Hose Cart Races on July 13, have been extended through to Friday.

Judi Stowers, coordinator for the contest, emphasized, "We want this Queen's Contest to become a tradition rather than a 'Beauty Contest.' "

The girls, from ages 18 to 35, will be judged on poise, personality and dress.

She also said that over a thousand dollars worth of merchandise has been donated by the merchants of Carmel. Prizes will be given to every entrant.

"The members of the Business Association and the merchants deserve special thanks for their cooperation with the Department," Judi said.

Entrants may be from anywhere in Carmel proper, including Mission Fields, The Highlands and Carmel Meadows. The winner will reign over the Hose Cart Race only, with no further obligation.

Hose Cart Race

The Annual Hose Cart Race will be held in front of the Volunteer Fire Department on 6th between San Carlos and Mission. There will be competition among various Peninsula Volunteers. Each group of firemen will pull a handcart around the block, attach the hose to a hydrant and then "squirt" water at a target until it is knocked down. The best time will win. The Queen and her court will be seated on a platform at the finish line to watch the events.

The crowd, which usually lines the street around the Department, will enjoy the costumes and antics of the good humored volunteer firemen. The festivities will begin at 6 p.m., Saturday, July 13.

New Voice Discovered In 'Carnival'

Where does the Studio Theatre find all its talent? An unbelievably high and pure voice was uncovered in last week's opening performances of "Carnival." Furthermore, the voice belonged to a little girl, Susan Leslie, an Audrey Hepburn type, fully as appealing as Leslie Caron who played the part of Lili in the film, or as melodious as Anna Maria Alberghetti on Broadway.

Hearing her sing "Love Makes the World Go Round" was something to remember. She also showed dramatic talent when she sang "I Hate Him" and other ballads. While not a big voice, her voice has a unique quality, and shows training and breath control.

Her performance made you believe in the interesting puppets. One of them, Carrot-top, expressed the love the bitter and jealous Paul, played by Bill Asp, felt for the little waif who found herself attracted to Marco the Magnificent. Bill Asp, they knew was a fine actor, having organized the Presidio Players. His personality was strong, and so was his baritone voice, which he handled with feeling.

The part of Marco the Magnificent was played by another newcomer to Carmel, Dr. Harold Lockwood. His gestures, pleasant singing voice and smooth magic tricks made him a perfect choice. His partner, The Incomparable Rosalie, played by Jeannie Hughes was properly brazen.

Ed Shinbrot, well-known to local audiences, gave a gloriously earthy and comical characterization of B. F. Schlegel, the chintzy owner of the straggling carnival which had seen better days. A bowl of flowers from Kim Novak was presented him on opening night.

Richard Soden, who played Jacquot, an elderly carney type, introduced the play by playing the theme song on a hand organ. Each member of the chorus who sang and danced, Donna Jo Towey, Karen Emerson, Val Vreeland, and Anne Frivitte, was given an individual bit of business by director Gary G. Eldridge.

The Roustabouts played by Gary Tao, Saxon Rawlings, James Trivitte and Geoff Cocks, handled scenery as well as songs and dances. Gary, by the way, received flowers from Gower Champion on opening night. Geoff also doubled as the long awaited Dr. Glass, German veterinarian, Rosalie's long distance swain.

The set, by the way, was one of Evans Jr.'s best, the posters almost too fine for a fifth rate carnival. All the amusing costumes were sewn by Judy Evans. Taped musical accompaniment was under the direction of Roger Osgood.

"Carnival" is playing nightly except Mondays, alternating weekly with "The Boy Friend" until Labor Day.

Theatre Review

LA GUERRE EST FINIE . . . A story of the struggles of an exiled Spanish revolutionary in coming to terms with his middle-aged loss of revolutionary zeal.

SABASTIAN . . . Sometimes exciting exercises in decoding operations of the British Intelligence. Dirke Bogarde and Susannah York star.

HALF A SIXPENCE . . . Tommy Steele brightens an otherwise dreary musical most notable for its triteness and gushy overproduction.

CAMELOT . . . A splendid film version of the musical based on Arthurian legend which blends fantasy and touching realism. Outstanding performances.

PARTY . . . A bungling film star from India creates a disaster area of a posh party. Good up to a point. Peter Sellers is too good for this one.

YOURS, MINE, AND OURS . . . About the Beardsley Family of Carmel. Lucy does a great job. Lines are funny and delivery perfect.

FIRECREEK . . . The tale of a small town cowering under the menace of five gunmen. Henry Fonda and James Stewart star.

THE SHUTTERED ROOM . . . Good fantasy chiller. Gig Young stars in this harrowing tale of the improbable.

ROSEMARY'S BABY . . . A young lady conceives the Devil's child. It makes for unpleasant days in the life of the innocent couple.

ODD COUPLE . . . Walter Matthou and Jack Lemmon set up housekeeping together when their wives leave them. Two funny men do a funny show. A must.

GREEN BERETS . . . John Wayne (will he ever age?) takes the role of a commander of a Vietnam unit. Just Vietnamese are fought by Indian Fighter, John Wayne.

Boy's Town catcher takes the throw at home to narrowly miss the tag during the championship playoff.

A proper windup, stretch and determined expression goes into a fine pitch.

Little League Season Ends

The Carmel Little League season came to an exciting end Saturday, when the underdog Derek Rayne defeated Boy's Town in the 1968 championship playoff at the Little League field next to the Mission on Rio Road.

Derek Rayne took the lead early in the game and never let up until they won 11-1 over the excellent Boy's Town team.

The championship game was scheduled to be played as a result of a tie of the two half seasons. Boy's Town won, hands down, the first half, while Derek Rayne won only one game. But it was a different story the second half. Derek Rayne and Boy's Town were tied for the second half until the last two games. Boy's Town then dropped behind Derek Rayne by one game which gave Derek Rayne the advantage to play in the championships, resulting in their victory.

Boy's Town calls for a conference with bases loaded in the first inning of the championship game.

And their future doesn't look any brighter. Appliances will be working at these lower rates again this year.

Except for bigger energy demands during winter, the only way your PG&E bill can go up is when you add some new appliances to your domestic staff. And then you're still getting a bargain.

Bastille Buffet a la Beach Club

Now that France has resolved its recent upheavels, their national holiday on Bastille Day will be celebrated with more verve than ever. On our Peninsula a Bastille Buffet will be sponsored by the Alliance Francaise at the Beach Club at Pebble Beach. It will take place on Sunday July fourteenth with a no host cocktail gathering starting at 5:30. A gala French buffet supper will be served at 7 p.m.

Through the combined efforts of Mrs. Henri Corbat and Mrs. James Hathaway, associate chairmen, and Edouard Platel, Executive Chef at Del Monte Lodge, this local celebration has been made possible. Mr. Platel, whose background has been at top resort hotels in Europe and America and Mr. Tom Oliver the affable and expert manager of the Beach Club, with the club's chef de cuisine Louis Borel, have assured an evening of fun. The menu will feature the classic Boeuf Bourguignon with country rice, French bread, green salad and flambee Omelette Surprise with, of course, "le gros rouge qui tache" (red wine that stains white table cloths!).

All are invited to this gay evening which, will feature entertainment by talented members of the local Alliance. Mrs. Sorin Issvoran is ticket and reservation chairman and may be reached at 372-0922 or 372-1282. Mrs. Jerome Carlson, president, has selected Mrs. John Warren Rees to be in charge of decorations and Mrs. Sean Flavin is program chairman. Those who will add to the festivities with their own specialties are Mrs. Jeannie Franklin, chanteuse, Lucille Ray, accordionist, Robert Peterson, guitarist, Ron Mayfield, dancer and Raymond Surdet at the piano. And now for the highlights of the Bastille Buffet a la Beach Club, July fourteenth.

Boeuf Bourguignon

Four lbs. lean beef, cut in 1½-inch cubes; Accent; salt and pepper; ½ cup butter; 1 large peeled diced carrot; 2 cups peeled diced onions; ¼ cup flour; 2 cloves garlic, sliced; slight pinch thyme; 2 bay leaves; ½ cup chopped parsley; 2 cups full-bodied dry red dinner wine; 2 cups beef bouillon; 20 tiny white onions; 20 small tender young carrots, cut in pieces; ½ lb. white fresh button mushrooms; ¼ cup brandy.

Sprinkle beef cubes with Accent, salt and pepper lightly. Allow to stand for a while. Melt half of the butter in large Dutch oven. Add beef cubes a few at a time and brown well. Add diced vegetables and brown with meat. Mix in flour, garlic, thyme, bay leaf, and ¼ cup parsley. Add wine and bouillon and stir well. Cover and simmer until meat is nearly tender. Meanwhile, brown whole onions and carrots in remaining butter. Remove from pan and saute mushrooms, stems and caps. Add carrots and onions to meat and cook all for 30 minutes very slowly, covered. Then add mushrooms and simmer 15 minutes longer. Just before serving, remove bayleaf, add brandy and sprinkle with remaining chopped parsley. Serves 10. This is delicious served in puff pastry shells for a glamorous change. They come frozen. Serve with hot rice or noodles. Here are two ways to cook rice in the Gallic manner.

Rice Cooked in Chicken Stock: Wash 1½ cups rice and cook it in 3 cups chicken broth; add a little more stock if liquid is absorbed before the rice is tender. Add chopped chives as desired. Serves 6.

Riz a la Basquaise: Heat 1 cup raw rice in 2 T. melted butter, stirring often, until every grain is coated and they begin to turn golden. Add 1 cup chicken broth or consomme and bring to a boil, then lower flame and cook rice, covered, for 15 minutes or until liquid has been absorbed. Add another 2½ cups hot chicken stock. Cook slowly, covered, until liquid is again absorbed. Meanwhile saute 2 chopped onions, and 1 sweet red pepper, diced in 3 T. butter or clive oil until tender. Mix vegetables with rice and add freshly ground pepper. Serves 4.

Salade Francaise

Any desired fresh young greens; garlic or onion; 2 T. mixed wine and tarragon vinegar; salt, pepper and Dijon mustard to taste; a pinch of any one of these herbs; Basil, chervil, savory or thyme; 6T. best olive oil.

A true French salad may be made of any combination of thoroughly washed and drained fresh young greens such as dandelion, watercress, field salad known as Mache in France, escarole, endive, romaine, head lettuce, Bib hearts, spinach and minced green onions. Rub bowl with garlic or onion. Add salt, pepper and mustard to bottom of wooden bowl. Stir in vinegars; mix kitchen herbs in this. Lastly add oil. The amount of dressing depends on size of salad. The proportions always are 1 part wine or tarragon vinegar, 3 parts olive oil with salt, freshly ground pepper and a little Dijon mustard. Mix with chilled greens at serving. A few finely minced anchovy filets may be added and often the hard-cooked yolk of an egg is crushed with a fork, put through a sieve and added to the dressing. Serve special Beach Club French bread if you can get it!

Omelette Surprise 14 Juillet

Six freshest Jumbo eggs; 4 T. cool water; salt, pepper, sugared cooked peeled apples, cut into cubes, or apricot preserves or marmalade; slivered blanched almonds; rum.

Beat the eggs to a light froth on top. Add water and seasonings and beat slightly to mix. Last, while beating add 2 T. dark Martinique or Jamaica rum. Cook slowly in a preheated iron skillet (butter in pan should not be too hot to start) about 7 minutes. When it is cooked through but still soft, spread across center ½ cup cooked apples, sweetened with powered or brown sugar, apricot preserves or marmalade and a few slivers of blanched almonds. Fold the omelette and turn it out onto a hot platter. Sprinkle top with fine granulated sugar and a few more almonds, and pour on 3 T. of warmed rum. Light and serve basting with the blazing rum. Serves 3.

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA

CARMEL is a breath of fresh air, an awareness of beauty. The materialist says of Carmel, "corny," nothin' to do. The idealist glimpses something of reality and a meaning of life in this area of great beauty.

Located, as Carmel is, almost on the west edge of the west coast, it benefits from clean Pacific air, filtered and conditioned by thousands of miles of ocean. It is snuggled into an intimate bay where it receives protection from northerly winds and is guarded by nearby Point Lobos and the Santa Lucia Mountains.

Some Carmel Business Association facts are included in the following:

BRIEF HISTORY

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA is a residential community and art center located on the Pacific shore of Monterey County, California, 130 miles south of San Francisco and 350 miles north of Los Angeles.

Carmel is an informal, individualist town with a citizenry that constantly strives to preserve the natural beauty of ocean, hills and woods. Homes nestle around and under trees on the slopes that rise from the world-famous white sands of Carmel Beach. Local ordinances tightly restrict business zones (i.e., none on the Beach front), outlaw billboard and neon advertising, and control indiscriminate tree cutting.

Carmel has no cemetery, no mail delivery, no street addresses (mail is picked up at the local post office), and except for the business district, conventional sidewalks and street lights are missing.

The village is culturally active in music, art and little theatre groups, and features locally-made art objects in many gift shops.

CARMEL was named for the Carmelite Friars who came to the area with Viscaino in 1602. Carmel's first building, the Mission San Carlos de Borromeo (second of the great Franciscan Missions in California) was established by Father Junipero Serra in 1770.

In the early 1900's, the village of Carmel began around a group of young artists and writers. Five hundred residents living in an area of 7/8 of one square mile incorporated Carmel-by-the-Sea in 1916 and established a Mayor and City Council government.

Gallery Carmel A Pure Delight

Boy with Balloon

A first time visit to Gallery Carmel on San Carlos St. between 5th and 6th is always an experience of pure delight. The metal working genius of Malcolm Moran, Donald Buby and William Hanzelka offers a wide variety of decorative metal sculpture.

The manner in which they capture the innocence and freedom of children flying kites, running with balloons or surrounded by birds is close to magic and probably the most appealing of all their many works.

The list of commissions by these artists, both for public buildings around the world and for the private collections of well known connoisseurs is very impressive.

Mr. Buby has withdrawn from active participation in the gallery but still contributes his handsome wall hangings to the collection. Carmel is indeed fortunate to have this highly individual gallery.

Cash Awards For Artists

Carmel Artists have been invited to secure applications for exhibit space in Los Gatos and at the Atascadero Art Club's Annual Fall Festival of Arts.

Fiesta de Artes, a five day cultural festival at Los Gatos in Old Town, August 21-25 is sponsored by the Los Gatos Jaycees, and attracted over 200 artists last year. In excess of 85,000 persons were able to view the various art forms, including sculpture, ceramics, painters, weavers, etc.

Prizes of $2000 for painting, graphic arts and sculpture will be awarded this year. Applications may be mailed to the Fine Arts Center, Old Town, 50 University Ave., Los Gatos.

Atascadero Festival

Another festival on September 21-22 will be held in Atascadero with cash awards amounting to $200. Theme for the show is "Art Tells the Story. Applications must be in by August 23.

An ad in the Pine Cone has a 7-times-better chance to be read than an ad in a daily newspaper.

Two Artist Show Zantman Gallery

Ruth Munson and Phillipe Marchand are having their yearly exhibit in Zantman Galleries, simultaneously.

Ruth Munson's paintings are more brilliant than ever, reminiscent of the famous 19th-century French impressionists, yet executed in her highly individual manner. Small children, still lives, kittens and sensitive portraits of young women, are her subjects.

Phillipe Marchand, the Frenchman, brings his latest strong and powerful work, his technique more perfected than ever.

Galerie de Tours owner Robert Kaller and his wife host a cocktail preview at opening of Edna Hibel's one-man-show.

Carmel Police Chief Clyde Klaumann and Ken Morris of Carmel Sport Shop admire one of Miss Hibel's Mexican subjects.

Galerie de Tours Shows Edna Hibel

The Galerie de Tours hosted a Cocktail Preview of the one-man-show of Edna Hibel, Saturday evening, with many prominent Carmelites invited to attend.

Miss Hibel, who was recently elected a member of the Royal Society of Arts, London, England, studied under Alexander Jacovleff and Karl Zerbe at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. An outstanding student, she was the recipient of the Sturtevant Travelling Fellowship which allowed her to study in Mexico. As a result, many of her paintings were purchased by the Museum. She was the youngest artist to have a painting purchased by a major museum at the time.

Dr. McKinley Helm, the renowned critic of Mexican art, said, "Miss Hibel has achieved the impossible in her work, which is both delicate and strong at the same time."

Margaret Schlerf said, "Edna Hibel has a theory that love, sensitivity and beauty are on the verge of a renaissance. This is not an opinion to be dismissed lightly, for Edna Hibel is the most successful woman painting in the United States today . . ."

Edna Hibel is the mother of three boys and through them has sharpened her powers of observation.

Honors for Grads

Mrs. Elizabeth Pringle recently received her bachelor's degree in languages and civilizations from the Institute of Foreign Studies.

Her interest in pre-Columbian culture will take her to South America in August along with daughter Penny, (Mrs. Joseph Knowles Jr.) who will do graduate work at the University of California at Los Angeles where she spoke recently at a big symposium on art. Mrs. Knowles has been teaching history of art at a state college in Kentucky.

U. New Mexico

Kurt Jay Fiedler of Carmel has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque. Kurt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fiedler, University of Sussex, Brighton, England.

Memorial Gift Honors Mary Pattee

Community Hospital has received a $12,500 gift in memory of Mary Pattee, Monterey County community leader who died of cancer last year.

The money was raised at a dinner honoring John C. Cohan as Humanitarian of the Year. It was presented to the hospital by Thomson J. Hudson, chairman of the dinner, and Mr. Cohan. Accepting in behalf of the hospital was Dr. Osman H. Hull.

In making the gift, Mr. Hudson said Mrs. Pattee, wife of Assemblyman Alan G. Pattee, has been a county leader in community affairs for 27 years. She was responsible for training hundreds of children in good horsemanship and for 20 years was active in the Monterey County Horse Show. She was founder of the Junior Division at the Monterey County Fair and organized the Corral de Tierra Riding Club for children. She sponsored three horse shows annually at the family ranch, Etap Farms, in Corral de Tierra.

South Seas

Bill and Carol Brown left recently for Tahiti and the Fiji Islands.

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

Books on politics, elections, and the candidates are now on display on the top of the card catalog. We are also having bookmarks printed. These will list most of the books, with their class numbers, and we hope that this list will spur voters to read before voting. At least, it will remind them that this library does have books on the subject.

In case you never heard of a Manxmouse, and after all whoever has, now is the time to end such ignorance, and you can do this by the simple act of reading Manxmouse by Paul Gallico. This is another one of the Gallico books which is good for young or old, man or beast, and everyone can profit by reading it. Profit to the extent of a pleasant hour or two with this remarkable mouse while taking part in his exciting adventures in England. Read it to your young ones, or give it to a friend in the hospital. They will love it!

Amateur Astronomy by Patrick Moore is for the neophyte interested in studying the heavens. There are maps and diagrams, photographs, and tables, plus an index to help you relocate any information you have read and then lost. There is also considerable information how to choose and care for a telescope. The entire thing is for a person seriously interested, not for a hobbyist who just wants to be able to identify the Big Dipper while out for an evening's stroll.

We are all concerned because of the use of drugs by college students. Comes now a book by William Surface with a detailed report on the use of drugs by students in what are called "America's most elite eastern colleges—The Ivy League and their seven sister schools." Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Penn, Brown, Princeton, Dartmouth, and Cornell are included in the colleges discussed. This is a good book and a frightening one if you are a parent or a grandparent. And perhaps the most frightening thing of all is that the parent-generation has so little influence over the child-generation. There is no meeting, no point of contact which is valid for these youngsters. To tell them drugs are bad for them is like punching a pillow . . . no response. And it must be that thousands of these parents are denying themselves to be able to send their children to college. The title of the book is The Poisoned Ivy. Read it because the problems in these eastern colleges are just examples and not their exclusive property.

And while we are being disturbed, here is Voices From The Love Generation edited by Leonard Wolf. These are interviews with Hippies. They are thought provoking, which is a trite expression, but the thought they provoke is that if some of us would take time to go up to the Haight and live near these people for awhile, we might discover that they had something. One sure thing, they are not stupid. Wrong they may be, and probably are, but they are not stupid. Of course, there is always the smell of them to contend with!

We have The Doctor's Quick Weight Loss Diet book by Stillman. He believes it is all right to take off weight quickly. If you think so too, this book is for you.

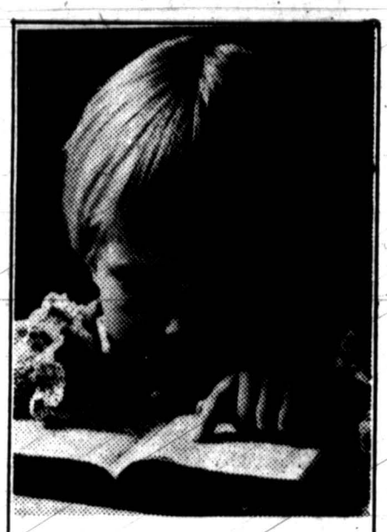
Christian Science Sunday Sermon

"For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

This verse from Habakkuk is part of the Lesson-Sermon titled "God" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The readings will include the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done."

Everyone is welcome.



What do you tell your child about God?

Or, more important, what do you tell yourself about God?

Nothing has greater bearing on your well-being and your child's.

The confidence you have in God's love helps your child feel God's presence. It helps him gain confidence in good. And it creates an atmosphere of harmony, which is so important in any home.

The Bible, books, and periodicals in our Reading Room can help you research and prove for yourself the truth about God and man. And this can bless all the members of your family.

GENTLENESS

An obituary in the June 20 Pine Cone surely brought a wave of sadness throughout the Old Timer world of the Monterey Peninsula. It read: "Bess Shaw Tickle, 92 . . . died Monday . . ." Yes, a wave of sadness in the hearts of the many because of their personal bereavement, as well as a wave of exultation at having known one of such surpassing gentleness.

A gentleness so inborn, so natural, so genuine, as to induce a like spirit in all and any who came in contact with her.

In the haste and hurly-burly of current life, the quality of gentleness is all too frequently overlooked. One forgets the positive factor in gentleness, thinking only of the reticence and retirement of it's possessors as in contrast to the qualities of force and action as they are associated with progress, so-called.

If, however, we include the betterment of the human spirit as one measure of progress, we may pause to realize the great contribution of gentleness to the progress of our community.

In such realization, we who knew Bess Shaw Tickle as the living exemplification of gentleness, know that ours is a far finer community because of the gentleness she so graciously shed over it for a half century. It is certain that our gratitude for this contribution is one that we shall hold for life. We humbly honour your memory Bess Shaw Tickle.

Why does the Sun Life man spend so much time talking about taxes? And investments? And savings plans? And real estate? If his business is really life insurance

Because helping plan balanced estates is his business!
As a trained, professional life insurance specialist, he knows that a balanced estate will always include a logical life insurance program. And, by the same token, he knows that personally tailored insurance can be recommended only through knowledge of the other elements of an individual's estate.

Try him out — ask him a question on the organization of your estate. You can expect a knowledgeable, objective answer, either personally or through one of the many informative sources available to him. He might just suggest a Sun Life program designed to complement your estate. But then again, he might not — if you don't need one. He knows you'll see him when you need some insurance.

In financial planning, days mean dollars.

PYROTECHNICS FOR JULY 4

goes the surf in the front yard of your fascinating ocean-front home! We have three great ones just now: 5 miles from Carmel, with a guest house right down on the rocks, for $97,500; 2½ acres on the ocean edge with a luxurious nearly new home for only $108,000; and down near that picturesque Point Sur lighthouse we've just listed a hexagon shaped house hung by a skyhook right on the cliff overlooking the sea for just $69,500.

BANG!
up house for a family in the sunshine of Rancho Canada, which means the delights of a river front location, 4 or 5 bedrooms, 3 baths, dressing room, family room, big utility room, 2 fireplaces. 3 surfaced patios. Room for a horse. $65,000 with fine terms. (Near the beach we have the most unusual family home in all Carmel for $135,000. Inquire!)

SIZZLE!
when you get your income tax return ready? Take a look at the depreciation and other write-off possibilities in an income property just a little way off Ocean Avenue and up from the beach. 3 charming little homes. Live in one and rent the others, or build your retirement home later on part of the property, or just keep one for weekends and enjoy the income and charming tax advantages. Price $82,500. (If that's too much, we have a smaller one across the street for only $42,500.)

WHISH!
and you're in the village or on the beach if you own the traditional home across the street from La Playa. Or stay home and sun in your private patio. Price $57,500.

ZOOM!
lens not needed from either of these homes, as the view seems to be in your front yard—that's Point Lobos right out there! A 3-bedroom, 2-bath home on a cul-de-sac above the picturesque old Mission for only $45,000, or a house just great for entertaining with all kinds of delightful rooms for study or den use at the quiet end of Martin Way for just $49,500.

SPARKLE!
That's what this home has! It's an indoor-outdoor house on more than 3 acres in Carmel Valley and probably one of the most interesting and carefully planned and built contemporaries in this area. If you're the kind who likes a ranch setting in complete luxury, with white fences, green pastures, great quarters for your horses—the whole rural bit!—let us show you this property.

POP!
yourself into the cutest little bungalow on Junipero and 10th in Carmel for only $25,950. Shake roof, window boxes, trees, easy distance to town and the beach, and it's well built and only 8 years old.

SWISH!
Easily one of the most luxurious homes in a country setting in this area, a handsome Palos Verdes stone residence on a bluff overlooking Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club from the oak trees of Rancho Canada. It's not inexpensive—it's priced in the 90's—and it's not for a big family. But if you're a couple who like to entertain and who enjoy spacious, gracious rooms, let us show you this unusual home.

FLARE!
Even if you sent this one up, nobody would probably see it, for this is a really secluded location about 6 miles up in the Palo Colorado Canyon, and if you spelled the word "flair" you'd have exactly the right description of the most unusual and dramatic stone and rustic home you've ever seen. New, full of the most modern things hidden in its A-frame architecture, see this fascinator on its 6 acres of forest for only $59,500.

TWINKLE!
Every little star—and you'll see them every night from this fog-free spot in Carmel Valley. And sun! You'll see it every day in the enchanting patio of a little post-adobe on a knoll in Carmel Valley. It's the small ranch-style home you've hoped to find, and it's done with such imagination and taste that you probably wouldn't change a thing if you are alone or a couple with a flair for miniatures done to perfection. Price $55,000.
